

Governor Carney Lowers Delaware Flag

In recognition of the passing of former State Senator Robert “Bob” L. Venables, Sr. and former State Senator and Representative Winifred Theodora “Winnie” Spence, Governor Carney has ordered the Delaware flag at state buildings and facilities be flown at half-staff through Sunday, January 2 as a mark of respect for their service to the State of Delaware. The Delaware flag is to be returned to full staff on Monday, January 3.
